The Sundaze Balcony, located in one of the most authentic and charming corners of Aegina, is a newly built apartment of 54 sq.m., constructed in 2025, perfectly combining modern design with the quintessential island lifestyle.

This upper-floor apartment features 1 comfortable bedroom and an open-plan kitchen with living area, creating a bright and functional space for everyday living. It offers autonomous heating, thermally insulated aluminum frames, high-quality tiled floors, a security door, window screens, and two private parking spaces, while being surrounded by a garden and providing access to a stylish shared pool. The apartment enjoys panoramic and unobstructed sea views, is bright, airy, and fully open, offering a unique sense of freedom.

Located just steps from the beach and with regular daily ferry connections to Piraeus year-round, it allows for easy and frequent getaways—even for a short weekend—letting you enjoy the sea and sun many days of the year. It is ideal for both Greek and international buyers seeking a secure investment or a private summer retreat, only about an hour from Athens and the international airport.
