A first impression

Welcome to an exceptional detached house that impresses with contemporary comfort and sophisticated furnishings. Built in 2002, this architect-designed house has been extensively modernized in 2024 and is now both technically and visually state-of-the-art. With a living space of approx. 120 m² and a total of four rooms, this property offers ideal conditions for couples or families who appreciate spacious and bright rooms.

Thanks to its solid construction, the house stands for durability and energy efficiency. The latest technology of a Viessmann air heat pump (2024) in combination with the underfloor heating throughout the first floor ensures a pleasant living climate and modern, energy-saving heating. The cleverly arranged, large window areas support the bright impression of the entire living ambience and create a friendly atmosphere in every room.

The first floor is the focal point of the house: here you will find a spacious living and dining room, which is given a cozy touch by the wood-burning stove with heat distribution. The Leicht fitted kitchen is equipped with all built-in appliances and plenty of storage space - ideal conditions for realizing culinary ideas. Manual blinds on the first floor allow individual light regulation and offer additional protection.

There are two spacious bedrooms on the upper floor, both of which can be used flexibly - whether for the family, as a study or guest room. The brightly tiled bathroom is equipped with a bathtub and a separate shower. The other rooms also offer a variety of uses, for example as a children's room or study. An insulated loft provides additional storage space or can be used individually as required.

The outdoor area boasts a well-tended garden, which is complemented by a garden shed with a relaxation area. Here you can linger in a private atmosphere and enjoy nature. There is a covered carport for your vehicle, which offers additional storage space for garden tools or bicycles.

A house that impresses with bright rooms, a pleasant living atmosphere and high-quality furnishings. See for yourself and arrange a viewing appointment to get to know this attractive offer in person. We look forward to presenting you with your potential new home.
