A first impression

For sale is a generous plot of land with an impressive area of over 5,000 m². A rare opportunity to build your dream home in this magnificent location. The building site is situated in a sought-after residential area where nature lovers will find themselves in paradise. The plot is free of existing structures and offers numerous design possibilities. Furthermore, the large area provides the flexibility to tailor the development to the individual preferences of the future owners. The property comprises several parcels (building/open space and agricultural land), and land consolidation has already been initiated. A remediation process is partially underway. We would be happy to provide you with further details. The surrounding trees and green spaces contribute to the high quality of life this property offers. The ample distance to neighboring properties enhances the potential for realizing a unique residential project. This not only provides privacy but also a pleasant living environment. Interested parties are invited to personally experience the diverse possibilities this property offers during a site visit. A viewing can be arranged at any time by appointment and offers the opportunity to gain a comprehensive impression of this exceptional building plot. Arrange a viewing appointment today and see for yourself the possibilities this property offers. Inquiries can only be processed with a fully completed contact form (name, address, telephone number and email).
