A first impression

The minimalist Villa Arizona was designed with bright and spacious rooms, with floor-to-ceiling windows that provide plenty of natural light and allow a direct transition from indoor to outdoor. The modern house is distributed over three floors, facing south, which ensures many hours of sunshine and offers mountain views and sea views. The entrance of this fantastic property invites with a beautiful landscaped garden, an elegant walkway along a small pool leading to the main entrance of the property. The basement area offers a large garage and space for a gym or entertainment room. On the main floor you can find a large living and dining room, a fully fitted open plan kitchen with stunning views of the pool and natural park. A total of three guest bedrooms are located on this floor, all with ensuite bathrooms, two of them have their own terrace. A large sunny terrace with a chill-out area and the impressive infinity pool invite you to enjoy the wonderful climate of the island, combined with the great views of the natural surroundings. The upper level offers a large master suite with en suite bathroom, three private terraces with impressive views of the mountains and the Atlantic and a large separate dressing room. The minimalist design and the natural surroundings that this popular location offers make this an absolute dream property.
