A first impression

In the south-east of Tenerife, this special property offers two fully renovated houses finished to a high standard, set in a quiet and private environment. The location combines privacy with excellent accessibility, approximately 20 minutes from Tenerife South Airport and around 30 minutes from the island's capital, Santa Cruz. The front house features two bedrooms, an open-plan kitchen and a spacious living room. It has a living area of approximately 112 m². The garden area connecting the two houses offers great potential and has already been designed by an architect, including plans for an attractive outdoor area with terraces and a swimming pool, that can be implemented by the new owners. The rear house includes one bedroom, a dressing room which could easily be converted into an additional small bedroom, a storage room, a bathroom, an open-plan kitchen and a living room. With a total size of approximately 98 m². A notable feature is the fully wheelchair-accessible design, with step-free access and a ramp.

Another highlight is the generous roof terrace, offering wide views over La Jaca, stretching to Abades and even to the neighbouring island of Gran Canaria. An ideal place to enjoy the tranquility and unique atmosphere of this location.

All about the location

Arico, located near the charming coastal village of La Jaca, lies on the sunny southeast coast of Tenerife and offers a perfect combination of tranquility, nature, and authentic Canarian charm. The small fishing village of La Jaca is known for its relaxed atmosphere, scenic coastal walks, and natural swimming spots by the sea. At the same time, residents benefit from excellent connections via the TF-1 motorway, providing easy access to the popular southern areas such as El Médano, Los Cristianos, and Costa Adeje, as well as Santa Cruz and the northern part of the island. An ideal location for those seeking authentic island living with convenient accessibility.
