A first impression

In a new residential complex, it is proposed a large three rooms on the first floor, with independent access and private garden. From the garden, through an external staircase leads to the terrace from which you access the house. The environment designed for this project provides a large open-plan living area with kitchen and living room illuminated by large windows. The separate sleeping area consists of three beautiful bright bedrooms, including the master with en-suite bathroom, a double and a single. All bedrooms are of generous size, compared to standard measurements. A further windowed bathroom with shower serves the two bedrooms and the living area. Accessible from the corridor, a practical room designed for laundry and storage room of the house. Complete the solution a double garage in length which is also accessed by a private external staircase, located within its own garden. On the driveway access ramp there is a condominium area for parking bicycles.
