A first impression

Villa Volpe-Brusarosco presents itself as an architectural jewel hidden among the lush nature of a private park with ancient trees, located in the most prestigious part of Vicenza, close to the famous walk of the arcades of Monte Berico. This historic residence expresses the elegance and prestige of the past with its majestic facade, decorated balconies, and an external staircase that leads to the main entrances.

The surrounding park is an oasis of tranquility, with mature trees that cast artistic shadows on the refined exterior surfaces and offer a natural context that enhances the beauty of the structure. The villa opens onto spacious and bright interiors where natural light flows through large windows, highlighting the Venetian terrazzo floors and the high ceilings decorated with stucco.

Each room tells a story of timeless elegance, with architectural details such as carved door frames and crystal chandeliers that add a touch of refinement. The terrace, with its sturdy columns and worked balustrade, offers a priceless view of the greenery surrounding the property.

The proximity to the historic center of Vicenza, within walking distance, makes this villa an ideal place for those seeking exclusive living with easy access to the cultural riches and services of the city. Villa Volpe is more than a home, it is a piece of Italian history and culture, an opportunity to live in luxury surrounded by the timeless beauty of Vicenza.
