A first impression

In the countryside of Gambellara, a town between Verona and Vicenza famous for its Garganega and Recioto wines, we offer a wonderful historic farmhouse renovated with taste and wisdom.

The property, finds its first origins in the late 1400s when the family of Count Thiene began to use it to manage and store the harvest of their estates. The farmhouse in the past represented the hub of the local community, thanks to the ancient wood-burning oven used to produce bread and of which traces can still be found today.

The farmhouse has been the subject of a skillful conservative restoration by the famous Architect Soltan, starting in 2007, which has made it possible to preserve the main features of the property and enhance its beauty and uniqueness, with pleasant contrasts between the modern and the ancient Venetian style.

Currently, the structure is used as a private home, rural organic food production company and agritourism business.

The property consists on the ground floor of an area dedicated to catering, with large spaces and reception rooms in which the ancient hearths dominate, as well as a magnificent porch. Complete the spaces designed to the activity, a professional kitchen in accordance with the law and organized with specific work areas and a small wine cellar.

On the upper floor of the main body of the property is a beautiful two-bedroom apartment with 3 bathrooms as well as a living area with an open kitchen.

A second independent unit equipped with a kitchen, living room, bedroom and windowed bathroom stands between the main body of the farmhouse and the barchesse.

Overlooking the porch of the barchessa, also accessible by elevator and independent entrance, there are 3 very elegant large suites with private bathroom and loft area designed for hospitality business.
