A first impression

Large apartment on one level, on the first floor, within a residential context consisting of a few units surrounded by greenery a stone's throw from the city.

The proposed solution consists of entrance, separated studio, large living room with separate and habitable size kitchen, fully furnished in masonry and equipped with a wood-burning "economic kitchen".

From the kitchen there is a terrace that runs along the entire front of the apartment and overlooks a beautiful garden with tall trees.

In the living room there is a billiard table, which can also be used as a dining table thanks to the practical removable panels.

The separate sleeping area consists of 3 bedrooms, one of which is a double room with a small terrace, and two bathrooms, one of which is smaller and blind, with washing machine connections.

Inside the large courtyard, private garage and reserved parking space.

The apartment is also accessible with the use of an internal lift-elevator.
