A first impression

Nestled in a private and orderly residential setting, this single villa with garden represents an ideal living solution for those seeking independence, comfort and quality construction.

The entrance introduces to bright and well-distributed rooms, where the living area is developed in large and cozy spaces, enhanced by large openings to the outside and a pleasant continuity between living and dining area. The kitchen, separate and functional, is complete and perfectly integrated in the daily livability of the house, with direct access to outdoor spaces.

The sleeping area offers generously sized rooms, characterized by thoughtful finishes and warm flooring that give an immediate feeling of comfort. The recently renovated bathrooms stand out for their practicality and aesthetic cleanliness, with modern and well-organized solutions. Completing the property is an accessory room in the basement with a fireplace, ideal as a tavern or convivial space.

Outside, the private garden surrounds the home providing privacy and an easily manageable green space, perfect for moments of relaxation or family life.

The property is located in a quiet and well-connected area, appreciated for the quality of the context and the proximity to the main services, being particularly suitable for international clientele and families related to the presence of the American bases.

A solid, well-kept and ready to welcome solution, designed for those who want to live Vicenza with high living standards and in a context of absolute serenity.
