A first impression

For sale charming traditional house to reform in beautiful rustic property of 7.700 square metres in quiet area, well connected to 2 kilometres from Pollença and 4 from the coast. In the exteriors with clear views and views to the mountain Serra de la Punta, is the old porch of 19 square meters, old bread oven and the facade, that reformed preserving its charm will give character to the property. It has a garage and another independent room. Due to its age it is possible to reform the whole existing construction without the possibility of extension.

The country house with thick stone walls is distributed over two floors. On the ground floor, from the spacious entrance hall or living room, there is a connection to the old kitchen with fireplace, a bedroom, the staircase leading to the upper floor with two bedrooms and a large room.

It has a certificate of habitability, electricity connection, own water well and cistern. It is very interesting because of the well, the existing rustic construction, the situation and the surroundings.
