A first impression

Large plot of more than 26.000m2 near Sa Pobla for sale. Thanks to its convenient location it is just a few minutes drive from the center of town with all necessary services. Surrounded by beautiful countryside views this property offers a connection to nature and tranquility. Currently it has about 237m2 built and divided between the large safareig and small house with possibility to make a detached house. It also has its own well water supply and electricity. It is a great opportunity to create a warm and personalized home in the heart of the Mediterranean countryside! Sa Pobla is a small municipality located in the center of Mallorca, between Inca and Alcudia. It is a true reference point for agriculture on the island and stands out for the production of the humble potato. They cultivate it with great care and export it to several countries, and even celebrate an annual festival in its honor. You will find many places of interest both in the village itself and in the surrounding area. The beautiful Playa de Muro is only 10 kilometers away. Sa Pobla can be reached directly by the freeway linking Palma with Alcúdia, and there is also a train that takes you to the capital of Mallorca. Part of the village of Sa Pobla is located in the Albufera natural park, a protected wetland. It is an ideal place for bird watching, as well as for walking and hiking. The village of Sa Pobla is known for the large market held every Sunday. You can find fresh food, as well as household items and other products.
