A first impression

Wonderful and unique property with historical character and more than 1.000.000m² of land located halfway between Manacor and Porto Cristo. With more than 250.000 m² of forest and large cultivated land, it is situated on a charming hill offering beautiful and panoramic views. The property of about 2.400m² built, has a house of the nineteenth century that by its interesting shape surrounds the courtyard with its large main house with multiple rooms, staff houses, cellars, stables, an authentic touch of period structure. Right next to the main house, there are three large agricultural buildings. It is a very large historic property that was used as a horse farm in the past. The roofs have been completely renovated. The property offers large volumes that could be expanded inside if desired. A vaulted hayloft has enormous potential for use as a SPA.... A world of endless possibilities. The property also has a water well and electricity connection. Undoubtedly a great opportunity for the most excessive clients!
