A first impression

Fantastic finca near San Joan with several guest houses and stables and sheds This beautiful finca is very picturesquely located near the village of Sant Joan with a fantastic panoramic view of the Tramuntana massif. A palm-lined driveway leads to the property, which consists of a main house and two guest houses which enclose a beautiful inner courtyard. The main house consists of a large living room with double ceiling height that opens onto a beautiful open kitchen-living room. On the ground floor there is also another bedroom that is used as an office and a bathroom. On the first floor there is another guest room, a bathroom and the master suite which consists of two rooms. The guest house comprises a large living room and a spacious dining area with kitchen as well as 2 further bedrooms and two bathrooms. In the staff house there is another studio apartment with bathroom for employees as well as two further guest rooms with bathroom. The property has oil central heating for heating and hot water preparation and a decalcification system as well as double glazing and air conditioning in all areas except for the studio. Generous covered terraces invite you to linger. The dreamlike pool area with large wooden pergolas and a huge teak deck is perfect for relaxing and cooling off on hot summer days. A garage with several covered spaces is located near the entrance gate. There is also the laundry room and the boiler room. Two pavilions, one for children and one as a fitness room complete the offer. The finca is connected to the city water and also has cisterns with a capacity of 6000 liters. A dream property with endless possibilities
