A first impression

For sale is this townhouse on the outskirts of Campanet with a terrace of approx. 32 m² from which you can enjoy an unobstructed view of the surroundings and with a large garden of approx. 120 m². It is located in a very quiet, wide street with a slight incline and it is easy to find a parking space.

The property is very interesting due to its dimensions, it is located on a plot of approximately 280 m², with the main entrance on the ground floor and another access at the back, with the possibility of renovating and extending it. The four-storey house consists of the main first floor at street level of about 130 m², from which you can access the attic of about 100 m², where there are two rooms with high ceilings and a terrace of about 32 m². The property has 2 cellars of approx. 83 m² and approx. 47 m². The cistern and the water tank have a capacity of approx. 30,000 to 40,000 liters. New electrical installation in most parts of the main house. From the basement there is access to the garden.

The property has the building conditions according to the current regulations, to reform and build a swimming pool. Do not hesitate to arrange a visit.
