A first impression

Located in the Mediterranean countryside, close to Puerto de Pollenca, this estate is perfect for those who wish to enjoy privacy while being close to the town. Just a few minutes by car to any point in Pollenca or the port, with its magnificent white sandy beach.

With a plot of approximately 18,108 m², the owners can enjoy the tranquility of the countryside, with expansive views towards the mountains.

The property offers approximately 368 m² of living space, distributed over two floors. It houses a total of four generously sized bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, offering private and comfortable space for all inhabitants. Three of the bedrooms are located on the ground floor, each with direct access to the exterior, allowing residents to enjoy the countryside views. On the upper floor is the master suite, the true gem of the property, including a spacious bedroom, en-suite bathroom, walk-in closet, and private terrace. There is also a small room that can be used as a library or office.

The ground floor is highlighted by a large kitchen-dining area, designed to function as the heart of the home, inviting family and friends to gather. The space extends into a spacious living room that leads out to a large outdoor terrace and a fantastic green garden. In this area, the pergolas provide shade and create an ideal space to relax after a refreshing swim in the saltwater pool.

The materials used in the construction are of the highest quality, reflected in every detail of the property. Abundant natural light filters through large windows, framing the lush green landscape and surrounding mountains. Underfloor heating, air conditioning, and a fireplace ensure comfort throughout the year. Additionally, the estate has its own water well.

With its mix of space, comfort, and strategic location, this estate is an exceptional opportunity to acquire a residence in one of the most sought-after areas on the island.
