All about the location

Pollensa is a charming small town in the north of Mallorca with around 16,000 inhabitants. The town is characterized by its traditional architecture, narrow streets and relaxed atmosphere. Pollensa is particularly famous for the Calvary, from where you can enjoy a sweeping view over the town and the surrounding Tramuntana mountains. Its history dates back to Roman times, which is reflected in the historic town center. The beautiful beaches of Port de Pollensa can be reached in just a few minutes, while the island's capital Palma and the international airport are around 60 kilometers away. Pollensa combines Mediterranean quality of life with cultural diversity, making it one of the most sought-after residential areas in Mallorca.
