A first impression

Spacious, brightly lit, generous spaces, breathtaking view, special Turkish bath, a real luxury feeling. 3- storey family house very close to nature but still half an hour from the bustling center of Budapest is for sale. Each floor of the house was built in such way that most of the rooms receive as much natural light as possible. The understated elegant design is complemented by extra elements such as stained-glass windows. This is a unique creation specially designed for the house by artists who worked for Hungarian Parliament or Gresham Palace (Four Season Hotel) Another unique element is the special spiral staircase made of hardwood with a special technique The house was built in 2000, renovated completely in 2019.
