A first impression

Family-friendly detached house on the Elbe-Lübeck Canal! This well-maintained detached house, built in 1970, offers a comfortable home for couples and families with approximately 119 m² of living space on a generous plot of about 1,011 m². The ground floor comprises approximately 94 m² and the attic approximately 25 m². The property is located in a quiet cul-de-sac predominantly consisting of detached houses. Last modernized in 2010, this solidly constructed house has been in good condition ever since. A special feature: this property could also be used as a two-family house, as there is a separate entrance to the attic. The ground floor comprises three rooms, including two bedrooms, a fully equipped bathroom, a convenient guest WC, a spacious hallway, and the kitchen. The living and dining area is characterized by plenty of natural light and can be flexibly designed to suit individual preferences. From the living room, there is access to the covered terrace and the spacious garden, which offers a variety of uses – whether for entertaining, gardening projects, or as a play area. The separate, practical kitchen provides ample storage and workspace for preparing everyday meals. Thoughtfully placed windows ensure a pleasant atmosphere. The bedrooms offer ideal retreats and, thanks to their layout, can be used in a variety of ways – as a master bedroom, children's rooms, or a quiet workspace. Currently, in addition to a bedroom and hallway, the attic also features a shower room and approximately 30 m² of potential living space. The quality of the fixtures and fittings is good to standard, providing a solid foundation for realizing your own interior design ideas. The central heating system guarantees a reliable and efficient heat supply to all rooms and must be brought up to legal requirements after purchase. The size of the property offers plenty of space for individual needs related to leisure activities, hobbies, or even an extension of the building. Practical storage areas, a utility room, and storage space in the partial basement complete the offering. A garage with an attached carport is available for vehicles. Thanks to its location, you'll benefit from excellent infrastructure: shops, kindergartens, schools, and doctors are all within easy reach, while green spaces and recreational facilities add to the appeal of this home. Excellent public transport connections ensure flexibility in your daily life. Does this property appeal to you and would you like to learn more? We would be happy to arrange a viewing appointment to see for yourself the possibilities and the well-maintained condition of this house. This property offers great potential for individual design and personal living concepts.
