A first impression

The farm consists of the typical Tuscan farmhouse positioned on a gentle hill with panoramic views, in the hamlet of Ribolla Municipality of Roccastrada (GR) near the sea of Castiglione della Pescaia and Punta Ala, immersed in the green Maremma. The stone farmhouse was built in 2004 with anti-seismic structure in reinforced concrete, covered with 25 cm of natural stone, the foundation in aerated reinforced concrete and the presence of a north side gutter allows a perfect insulation of the property.

It is arranged on two levels, from an urban planning point of view on the ground floor consists of a D10 of 300.00 square meters and we find archive room, small warehouse, central heating room, two large warehouses (one of approx. 87 square meters and one of approx. 81 square meters) and a bathroom.

Currently the property on the ground floor has been renovated and 4 apartments consisting of plasterboard partitions have been made.

On the first floor there is the residential dwelling of 130sqm plus a porch of 14sqm and we find:

a large living room overlooking the porch and a staircase that connects to the ground floor, habitable kitchen, two bedrooms, a bathroom, a study, a large master bedroom with bathroom.

Outside we find an in-ground pool and two smaller elevated pools surrounded by a well-kept garden.

The property is accessed by an entrance with automatic wrought iron gate and white road with a tree-lined driveway served by outdoor lighting that leads directly to the courtyard and outdoor parking spaces.

The Land surrounding the property consists of about 9,000sqm.

The price of the property in its current state for total residential sqm 430.00 is € 1.150.000,00
