A first impression

In the heart of the Cenisio neighborhood, one of Milan's most interesting and rapidly evolving areas, we are offering an apartment in a strategic and well-connected location, just a short walk from the M5 subway line (Cenisio station) and in the immediate vicinity of Porta Nuova, Monumentale, the Arco della Pace, and Parco Sempione. The area offers an ideal balance between privacy and urban vibrancy, with easily accessible amenities, schools, shops, and green spaces—further enhanced by the future development of Scalo Farini.

The property is located within an elegant, well-preserved historic building, equipped with an elevator and a half-day concierge service. Located on the first noble floor, the apartment enjoys a peaceful view of Via Govone, lined with centuries-old trees that ensure privacy and a pleasant living environment, featuring two windows and a French door leading to the balcony.

The neighborhood is well-served and offers a wealth of local businesses and essential services, as well as numerous shops of all kinds, supermarkets, restaurants, and bars that help make the area lively and convenient at all hours of the day.

The apartment, recently and carefully renovated, features a functional layout. The entryway opens onto a hallway leading to the living area, where you'll find a spacious, bright, and inviting living room with an open kitchen. The bathroom, equipped with a forced-ventilation system and a large shower, has been designed to offer comfort and convenience. The sleeping area extends through a passageway—ideal for built-in closets—enhanced by 3.20-meter-high ceilings, which allow for optimal use of the space, leading all the way to the bedroom.

Behind the block stands the historic Villa Simonetta, a renowned musical and cultural center. Furthermore, the area is part of the Cenisio-Brera transformation project, which will lead to the creation of the Parco delle Arti and the new Campus delle Arti—home to the Brera Academy—with new pedestrian paths and green spaces near the property, helping to make the neighborhood even more attractive and modern.

An ideal solution for those seeking an elegant home that's well-connected and situated in a rapidly developing area: don't miss out on this move-in-ready opportunity and take advantage of the Furniture Bonus incentive!
