A first impression

Completed in 1970, this mid-terrace house is now in very good condition after many renovations. In its current state, mainly cosmetic repairs need to be carried out and the two bathrooms need to be renovated. The layout with the 6 rooms, 2 possible kitchens and 2 bathrooms through the fully developed attic is ideal for a larger family or the possibility of use as a 2-generation house. In the basement, in addition to the utility room and the boiler room, there is also a very spacious hobby cellar and a laundry room with a shower and an external cellar staircase. The predominantly west-facing garden is also accessible via a service path and, in addition to the large covered outdoor seating area right next to the house, also has a garden shed for garden tools, bicycles, etc. The garage is just a few steps from the house and is the first in the garage courtyard. The handover date for this property is possible at short notice, as it is currently unoccupied. See for yourself at a personal viewing appointment!
