All about the location

Sóller is a charming town in the northwest of Mallorca, nestled in the Valley of Oranges and surrounded by the impressive Tramuntana mountain range, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city combines a picturesque landscape with historical flair and a Mediterranean lifestyle.

Known for its magnificent Art Nouveau architecture, the central Plaça de la Constitució with the imposing Sant Bartomeu church is a popular meeting place. The nostalgic streetcar that connects Sóller with the port, the "Port de Sóller", an idyllic coastal town with sandy beaches and exclusive restaurants, runs right next to it. The famous Tren de Sóller, a historic wooden train, also offers a direct connection to Palma.

Sóller offers a wide range of cultural attractions, including the modernist Can Prunera Museum and the Balearic Museum of Natural Sciences. The region is also a paradise for hikers and nature lovers, with numerous routes through the Tramuntana mountains and breathtaking views over the Mediterranean.

The town has around 13,500 inhabitants and is located around 25 kilometers from Palma. Mallorca's international airport can be reached in around 35 kilometers. Sóller is not only known for its orange groves, but also for its relaxed atmosphere, which makes it one of the most sought-after places for real estate on the island.
