A first impression

Stunning historic town palace in Alaro with almost 900 m² of garden and around 600 m² built area with views to the mountains. The town palace offers high ceilings on three floors with enormous space for several living areas, studies and master suites. The huge garden offers unobstructed views to the mountains and complete privacy. The project envisages the complete renovation of the property keeping its original charm combined with state of the art luxury. On the ground floor we find a large kitchen, dining room, library and access to a wine cellar as well as a large reception area. The second floor consists of two huge master suites separated by another large living area and a study. On the third floor there is another large master suite with dressing room and two guest suites that all share another large living room. The outside area will offer a fantastic summer kitchen with barbecue and various pergolas with sitting and dining areas around the large pool, access to a gym and SPA area . A large guest house with garage is also included. The license is due very soon. An absolute jewel that cannot be missed by those who seek absolute sophistication and simply the best. The price is for the property with project and license. Renovation costs come on top. On request we send more details on the house and the full plans of the project.
