All about the location

Puntiró is a quiet and rather exclusive residential area that belongs to the village of Portol in the municipality of Marratxí on Mallorca. It is a little off the beaten track, surrounded by green hills and extensive natural areas, with villas on spacious plots, making it a popular place to live for wealthier residents who appreciate peace and seclusion but at the same time want to be close to Palma and the main amenities. The population itself is quite small, as it is a sprawling residential area characterized more by detached houses and fincas. A particular attraction of Puntiró is the golf course of the same name, which is characterized by its idyllic location with a peaceful and natural atmosphere and views of the Tramuntana mountains. Puntiró is also ideal for families who value an international education, as there are two renowned educational establishments nearby. The Montessori school in Santa Maria del Camí, known for its alternative educational concept, is only around 10 km away and offers a learning environment that caters to the individual development of each child and fosters a strong sense of community. Equally close is "The Academy" in Marratxí, an international school following the British curriculum, approximately 13 km away and offering a high quality English language education. The proximity of these two schools makes Puntiró ideal for families who want to combine a quiet residential location with easy access to first-class educational facilities. Puntiró is around 18 km from the airport and the capital Palma is around 20 km away, meaning that the city's cultural and gastronomic offerings can be reached in a short time, while at the same time benefiting from Puntiró's rural tranquillity. The combination of nature, high quality living and proximity to Palma makes Puntiró a particularly attractive area for those looking for an upmarket lifestyle in Mallorca.
