All about the location

Costitx is a charming village in the heart of Mallorca, ideal for those seeking tranquillity and authenticity. Surrounded by rolling hills, olive groves and vineyards, Costitx offers a picturesque Mediterranean landscape and is located about 30 kilometers northeast of Palma. The town of Inca with a wide range of services is only 10 minutes away, and the airport, the center of Palma and the beaches can be reached in just 30 minutes.

Places of interest include the Costitx Astronomical Observatory, one of Spain's leading research centers, the Mare de Déu parish church, built in the 17th century, and the Talaiot de Son Fred, a prehistoric site of the Talaiot culture, which offers an insight into the early history of Mallorca.

Costitx offers numerous leisure activities, from hiking and cycling tours to wine tastings in the local wineries. The tranquil surroundings invite you to relax. Known for lively festivals, including the celebrations in honor of Sant Sebastià in January and the harvest festival in September, the village offers a great opportunity to experience the local culture up close.
