All about the location

Costa de la Calma, an idyllic coastal village in the municipality of Calvià in the southwest of Mallorca, has only a few hundred inhabitants, making it a retreat away from the hustle and bustle without having to sacrifice comfort. The name, which translates as "coast of tranquillity", describes the atmosphere perfectly: a harmonious interplay of Mediterranean serenity, scenic beauty and exclusive living quality. The development of the settlement began in the middle of the 20th century, when the first vacation homes and villas were built between pine groves and rocky bays. Today, Costa de la Calma is best known for its breathtaking sunsets, crystal-clear water and the famous "chiringuito" by the sea, a small beach kiosk on the rocks that has become the symbol of the place.

The quiet residential area is only around 20 kilometers from Palma de Mallorca, which means it takes around 20 minutes to drive to the city center. The island's international airport is around 30 kilometers away and can be reached in around 30 minutes by car. Costa de la Calma thus offers an ideal combination of a private, natural location and quick access to the cultural, gastronomic and economic centers of the island. Surrounded by rolling hills and with direct access to the sea, this location is particularly popular with property buyers looking for an exclusive location with authentic Mallorcan flair.
