All about the location

Son Ametller, a privileged district of the municipality of Marratxí, is located just a few kilometers northeast of Palma and combines the tranquility of an upscale residential area with the immediate proximity to the capital. Marratxí itself has around 38,000 inhabitants and is known for its high quality of life, characterized by spacious residential complexes, Mallorcan fincas and an excellent infrastructure. Surrounded by rolling hills, almond and olive groves and sweeping views of the Es Pla plain, Son Ametller offers an idyllic yet urban living atmosphere. The region has its roots in traditional pottery, which has earned Marratxí the reputation as the "land of the Siurells", and combines cultural heritage with a modern lifestyle.

The location could hardly be better: Palma can be reached in less than 15 minutes and the international airport in around 20 minutes. Beaches on the south coast such as Playa de Palma or Illetas are also just a short drive away. Several exclusive golf courses, including Golf Son Vida, Golf Son Gual or Golf Puntiró, are in the immediate vicinity and make the region particularly attractive for golf enthusiasts.

Son Ametller is also ideally located for sport and leisure. Cyclists and hikers will find ideal conditions in the varied landscape, while tennis clubs, gyms and riding centers offer a wide range of activities. The proximity to Palma also opens up unlimited gastronomic, cultural and shopping opportunities, without having to forego the tranquility of an exclusive residential area.

Son Ametller is particularly interesting for families, as the region offers a safe and natural environment with excellent infrastructure. In addition to local schools and nurseries, renowned international institutions such as The Academy International School and the Balears International College are just a few minutes away. Son Ametller thus combines Mallorcan charm, excellent connections and an exclusive living environment that meets the highest standards.
