All about the location

El Molinar, a former fishing and artisan quarter on the eastern outskirts of Palma, has developed into one of Mallorca's most sought-after residential areas in recent years. With around 9,000 inhabitants, this charming coastal town combines the maritime flair of a traditional harbor district with the urban comfort of the nearby island capital. The waterfront promenade with its small sandy coves, colorful fishermen's houses and excellent restaurants gives Molinar an unmistakable character that is both authentic and modern. The history of the district dates back to the 19th century, when numerous windmills stood here, giving the place its name, and the original charm can still be felt today. The location could hardly be more ideal. Palma is just a few minutes away, the international airport can be reached in less than 10 kilometers and there are direct links along the coast to Can Pastilla, Portixol and Playa de Palma. The neighborhood boasts a quiet, family-friendly atmosphere, while the vibrant old town of Palma, with its cultural offerings, exclusive boutiques and international schools, is just a short distance away. For sports and leisure enthusiasts, Molinar offers a wide range of possibilities. Sailing, surfing, stand-up paddling or simply a stroll along the kilometer-long beach promenade are part of everyday life. Cyclists and joggers appreciate the direct connection to the historic center of Palma, while golfers enjoy the proximity to first-class courses such as Golf Son Vida, Golf Puntiró or Golf Maioris. The beaches on the doorstep invite you to spend relaxing days by the sea, and numerous beach clubs and restaurants ensure Mediterranean joie de vivre at the highest level. Molinar is therefore not just a place to live, but a way of life - a perfect symbiosis of Mallorcan tradition, urban lifestyle and exclusive coastal location, making it one of the most sought-after locations for a stylish home on the island.
