This impressive newly built finca is located in S'Horta near Felanitx in the sought-after south-east of Mallorca - not far from the renowned Vall d'Or golf course. The property has just been completed and blends harmoniously into the Mediterranean landscape on a plot of approx. 15,883 m<sup>2</sup>, characterized by almond, olive and carob trees.

Thanks to its elevated position, there are impressive panoramic views over Porto Colom to the sea. The finca extends over two floors and offers a living area of approx. 302 m<sup>2</sup> and spacious terraces of approx. 243 m<sup>2</sup>. The main living area impresses with a spacious living and dining area, a high-quality open fitted kitchen and large windows overlooking the pool. ## All about the location

Felanitx is a lively town in the southeast of Mallorca with around 18,000 inhabitants and is considered the cultural and economic center of the surrounding rural region. The town combines authentic Mallorcan life with good infrastructure and is becoming increasingly popular with families, locals and international residents who value space, quality of life and proximity to nature. Felanitx is characterized by a rich history dating back to prehistoric times. The historical heritage is particularly visible in the townscape with its natural stone houses, the central market square and the striking church of Sant Miquel. High above the town is the former monastery of Sant Salvador, which is not only a spiritual landmark, but also offers impressive panoramic views across the island to the sea.

Felanitx has been known for centuries for winegrowing, ceramics and trade, which still gives the town a strong local identity today. These traditions are reflected in the weekly markets, local festivals and an active community life. Felanitx offers ideal conditions for families with schools, kindergartens, medical care and numerous leisure activities. Sports enthusiasts benefit from sports clubs, fitness facilities, horse riding and the proximity to cycling and hiking trails in the surrounding hilly landscape. The well-known golf courses and the beaches of the east and south coasts are also within easy reach, making the location particularly versatile.

The distance to the island's capital Palma is around 50 kilometers, while Palma de Mallorca Airport is around 45 kilometers away and can be easily reached by car in around 40 to 45 minutes. Felanitx thus combines authentic city life, family friendliness and excellent connections and is an attractive residential location for anyone who wants to combine the original Mallorca with urban comfort.
