A first impression

In a quiet location in Santa Maria del Camí, this lovingly modernized village house from 1950 presents itself as a home full of character, warmth and Mediterranean joie de vivre. Behind the traditional natural stone façade, which blends harmoniously into the village landscape, lies a stylishly renovated property that combines authentic charm with contemporary living comfort at the highest level.

On a plot of around 265 m², a generous living space of around 325 m² unfolds, designed for sophisticated living with plenty of room for family, guests and personal retreats. Four bedrooms - each with its own en suite bathroom - offer privacy and comfort, while the master bedroom with its own terrace invites you to sunbathe.

On the first floor, the spacious living and dining area forms the heart of the house. A stylish gas fireplace creates a cozy atmosphere on cooler evenings, while the open-plan designer kitchen with cooking island invites you to cook, enjoy and linger together. Generous window fronts allow the indoor and outdoor areas to flow into one another and open up the view of the lovingly landscaped garden with pool, veranda and terrace - a private hideaway in the open air.

Three further bedrooms await you on the upper floor, including an impressive master suite with its own fireplace, dressing area, luxurious bathroom and private terrace. From here, the view sweeps over the surrounding area to the center of the village - a place of peace and tranquility.

High-quality parquet and natural stone floors lend the rooms a warm elegance, while underfloor heating, modern central heating and air conditioning ensure year-round living comfort. A contemporary security system also provides a reassuring sense of protection and privacy.

The property has just been completed, fully furnished and is ready to move into - a house that doesn't need to be designed, but can be an instant home. A rare opportunity to acquire a stylish village retreat that combines tradition, quality and modern living in one of Mallorca's most sought-after locations. For further information or a personal viewing, please do not hesitate to contact us.
