The surrounding area offers numerous leisure activities such as hiking and cycling and combines authentic village life with a high quality of life.

The solidly constructed house, built in 1986, extends over two floors and offers approx. 303 m² of living space on a generous plot of approx. 950 m². All about the location

Mancor de la Vall is located in the heart of the Serra de Tramuntana, around 215 m above sea level, and has retained the original charm of a small village surrounded by mountains in a valley depression. In addition to Mancor, the municipality also includes the hamlets of Biniarroi, Massanella and Biniatzent. Of particular architectural interest are the parish church of Sant Joan Baptista and the chapel of Santa Llúcia, which were first mentioned in 1358. It is worth taking a walk to the chapel to enjoy the beautiful views of the village and the mountains. Here you can also admire several houses with interesting architecture, such as Can Marquesí, Son Simó, Cas Vellaco or Turixant. The latter is now used as a hotel with a restaurant. In November, the Fira del Esclata-sang i la Muntanya (Mushroom and Mountain Festival) takes place. Mushrooms are the stars of the festival, especially the esclata-sang, which plays a key role in many of the island's autumn gastronomic specialties, and it is an excellent opportunity to buy all kinds of artisan products and try delicious dishes made with mushrooms in the restaurants and eateries. Palma is about 35 km away. Surrounded by mountains, Mancor de la Vall offers hikers the opportunity to discover a pristine landscape of great beauty.
