All about the location

Sa Coma is a small, quiet district in the municipality of Bunyola on the Spanish Balearic island of Mallorca. The municipality of Bunyola has around 7,000 inhabitants, although Sa Coma itself is much smaller and is mainly characterized by villas and rural estates. The town is picturesquely situated at the foot of the Tramuntana mountains, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and is particularly popular with nature lovers and those seeking peace and quiet, as it offers a harmonious combination of Mediterranean landscape and exclusive living.

The history of the region dates back to the Middle Ages and is closely linked to agricultural use and its proximity to the historic Raixa estate, one of the most important estates in Mallorca. In Sa Coma you can still feel the flair of times gone by, combined with a modern lifestyle in a privileged location. Particularly noteworthy is the year-round green environment with pine forests, olive groves and close proximity to hiking trails and cycle routes that lead through the Tramuntana mountains.

Sa Coma is ideally located for commuters and those seeking peace and quiet alike - only around 14 kilometers separate the town from the island's capital Palma, which can be reached in around 15 to 20 minutes by car. Son Sant Joan International Airport is around 20 kilometers away, which ensures easy connections to the mainland and major European cities. Despite its proximity to the city, Sa Coma offers a pleasant seclusion, which is complemented by spacious plots, well-tended gardens and a quiet neighborhood.
