A first impression

Located in the sought-after residential area of Sa Cabaneta, Marratxí, this exceptional, detached property offers the perfect combination of the Mediterranean lifestyle, high-quality finishes, and modern living comfort. Set on a lot of approximately 661 m<sup>2</sup>, this property—built in 2008—delights with unobstructed views of the Serra de Tramuntana, light-filled rooms, and a well-thought-out architectural design that offers a variety of usage options.

The living area of approximately 330 m<sup>2</sup> is distributed across two levels and a spacious basement, featuring a harmonious floor plan with a total of three bedrooms, three bathrooms, a guest restroom, and a versatile room that is ideal as a playroom, home office, or, if needed, an additional bedroom. Two separate entrances also make it convenient to use as a multigenerational home or provide the ideal conditions for a private guest area.

As soon as you enter the house, you're greeted by a spacious entryway that flows into the open-concept living and dining area. The modern, open-concept kitchen blends harmoniously into the elegant living space and, together with the floor-to-ceiling windows, forms the heart of the home. The generous windows let in plenty of natural light and offer an impressive view of the surrounding landscape and the Tramuntana Mountains. From here, you can step out onto the spacious terrace with stylish seating areas and a hot tub—the perfect place to enjoy the tranquility and spectacular views in a private setting. ## All about the location

Sa Cabaneta is part of the municipality of Marratxí and combines rural charm with close proximity to the capital. The town, with a population of about 8,000, is located just 13 kilometers from Palma, and the airport is about 11 kilometers away, making it particularly attractive to commuters and international residents. Historically, settlement in the area dates back to prehistoric times, but Sa Cabaneta developed as an independent village in the 18th century. For a long time, the residents made their living from agriculture and crafts, and later also from the shoe industry. The village became famous for its traditional pottery production—particularly the “siurells”—as well as for the production of the well-known Ron Amazona, both of which remain an integral part of the local identity to this day. Today, Sa Cabaneta is a modern residential community that has preserved its traditional structures and village atmosphere. There is a wide range of sports and recreational activities: in addition to modern facilities for basketball, volleyball, and gymnastics, there are also swimming pools and tennis courts; golf enthusiasts can enjoy the high-quality Golf Park Puntiró, just a few minutes away. The surrounding area is ideal for walks, hikes, and bike rides, while Palma—with its cultural offerings, restaurants, and boutiques—remains easily accessible at all times.

Families with an international background will find an attractive educational environment. The Academy International School in Marratxí is a renowned institution offering bilingual instruction, complemented by other international and German-language schools in the greater Palma area. Public schools also have strong ties to international curricula.

Community life is shaped by markets, traditional festivals such as the Sant Marçal patron saint's day on June 30, and cultural events that bridge the past and the present. Sa Cabaneta thus offers the ideal balance between tranquility and accessibility, between Mallorcan tradition and international openness—a location that is particularly appealing to discerning prospective homebuyers.
