All about the location

A Few Hints of History

Portese is a hamlet of the Brescia municipality of San Felice del Benaco, on Lake Garda. It first became a hamlet of San Felice by order of Napoleon, but the Austrians reversed the decision upon their arrival in 1815 with the Lombardy-Venetia Kingdom.

After the Unification of Italy, the town grew from less than six hundred to more than seven hundred inhabitants. It was Fascism that decided to suppress the municipality, reuniting it permanently with San Felice.

Location and climate

San Felice del Benaco is located on the western shore of Lake Garda, about 35 km from Brescia. The municipality, which includes San Felice, Portese (which is about 1 km from the center of San Felice) and Cisano, is situated in the moraine hills in the middle of the Gulf of Salò and that of Manerba. The three villages have made up a single municipality since 1927. Near the village are three important mountains, Monte della Croce, Monte Campagnolo, and Monte Santa Maria. The climate is mild throughout the year and very comfortable. On beautiful spring days one can witness the triumph of nature in bloom, in summer the light breeze mitigates the high temperatures, autumn offers enchanting sunny days, and even in winter the temperatures remain pleasant.

Entertainment

During the summer months of July and August, you can explore the surroundings of San Felice del Benaco with a tourist train. For cycling enthusiasts, an 18-km-long bike path stretches along the villages of San Felice del Benaco, Portese, and Cisano. The weekly market is held in San Felice on Wednesdays. Various events are organized throughout the year, such as movie nights, concerts, theater pieces, exhibitions, festivals, sporting events, and a rich program for the entertainment of children.

Natural beauties in the surroundings

Garda Island, the largest island on the entire Lake Garda, belongs to the municipality of San Felice del Benaco. On the island is the luxurious palace of the Cavazza family, surrounded by beautiful Italian gardens and a rich forest consisting of cypresses, acacias, and pines. Guided tours of this breathtaking island are organized with the Cavazza family between April and October. Places of interest in San Felice are not few: the Baroque parish church of San Felice with its 18th-century frescoes, the ruins of the castle of San Felice with the old cemetery and tower, the Sanctuary of the Madonna del Carmine, the 16th-century Monte di Pietà building, the ruins of the medieval castle in Portese with the
