A first impression

Just a stone's throw from "Juliet's Balcony," a two-story townhouse with a triple garage.

In a unique location behind Piazza delle Erbe, in the "Rione Carega" neighborhood, we are offering an entire historic residence dating back to the Napoleonic era—a detached, restored property spread over four floors, plus a basement.

The carefully restored facade is framed by exquisite stone details that define the two imposing doorways—one for the main entrance and one for the garage.

At the center of the facade, a noble coat of arms carved in stone adds a touch of history and prestige. The facade has been painted, and the roof is in good condition. A key strategic advantage is the absence of any artistic or historical restrictions.

The property features an internal elevator that conveniently connects all levels, with a spacious, elegant, and highly functional layout.

Ground floor: entryway and utility area. Additional triple garage available for 300,000 euros

First floor: entryway, living area, two bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a storage room.

Second floor: formal living room with fireplace, TV area, dining room, spacious eat-in kitchen, and two small balconies reminiscent of "Juliet's House." Bathroom with window and pantry; all enhanced by a coffered ceiling and Venetian-style flooring.

Third floor: master bedroom with en suite bathroom, two additional bedrooms, and another bathroom.

The basement features a tavern and laundry area.

All about the location

This property boasts a location that can be described as the beating and noble heart of Verona.

We are located in the exclusive La Cadrega neighborhood, one of the oldest districts of the city, where time seems to stand still. Being here means experiencing the most authentic soul of Verona, made up of quiet alleys and historic families.

The property is located exactly behind Piazza delle Erbe, considered the most beautiful square in Italy: just a few steps from the historic market, the Lamberti Tower and the prestigious boutiques of Corso Porta Borsari. The proximity to Juliet's House and the Duomo allows you to breathe in the artistic and cultural atmosphere of the Scaliger city every time you leave home.
