A first impression

Located in a quiet and sought-after residential area of Dresden-Tolkewitz, this well-designed 2-room apartment is situated on the first floor of a well-maintained apartment building constructed in 1996. The unit boasts a thoughtful layout, a balcony, and is currently vacant. A parking space in the underground garage, which consists primarily of duplex parking units, is included with the apartment. The apartment is attractive to both owner-occupiers and investors, as it is available for immediate occupancy or rental. The Tolkewitz location offers a pleasant neighborhood, excellent infrastructure, and proximity to the Elbe River and numerous recreational opportunities. The apartment includes a parking space in the underground garage, which consists primarily of duplex parking units, but is not fully rented.
