A first impression

Prestigious Retail Space in the Heart of Raesfeld This exceptional retail space, built in 2000 in the heart of Raesfeld, combines stylish architecture, first-class amenities, and a rich history to create a unique package for entrepreneurial success. Prime Location with High Footfall Centrally located in the bustling center of Raesfeld, the property benefits from excellent visibility and consistently high foot traffic. Generous storefront windows not only create an inviting exterior but also offer ideal conditions for the high-quality presentation of your products or services. The appealing architecture lends the building a modern, elegant appearance and underscores the exclusive character of this business location. The interior is flexibly designed and offers space for individual usage concepts – from retail to showroom to exclusive services. The property extends over four levels and offers an ideal layout for diverse uses: The ground floor comprises a sales area of approximately 327 m² with generous display windows. In addition to the highly visible and eye-catching display windows, which give the space a bright atmosphere. In the rear section, there is also an office, a guest WC, and a kitchen. For storing materials, the property offers an additional storage room and another utility room with shelving on the ground floor. The first floor provides approximately 325 m² of retail space. The varied backdrops create a diverse and inviting atmosphere, which is particularly appealing when showcasing different themes. Separate from the retail area, the second floor offers a dedicated space of approximately 84 m², ideal for office use, internal workstations, or private client meetings. Its quiet location within the building fosters focused, professional work. This floor also features another bathroom with a shower. The spacious, tiled basement provides approximately 274 m² of additional storage space.
