Une première impression

Elegant Living in a Fully Renovated 19th-Century Ground-Floor Apartment with Patio

Experience luxurious living in a beautifully renovated double ground-floor apartment (117m²) with a private patio. This grand 19th-century building, located diagonally opposite the Rijksmuseum, has been meticulously restored using high-quality materials while preserving authentic details such as stunning high ornamental ceilings and beautiful stained-glass doors.

Featuring double glazing, an elegant oak floor, designer radiators, and a gas fireplace, this spacious apartment offers the perfect balance between historic charm and modern amenities. With two separate entrances, a luxurious kitchen, generous bedrooms, and a patio, it serves as both a stylish residence and an ideal location for a home office or gallery.

Tout sur l'emplacement

The apartment is centrally located just around the corner from the Spiegelkwartier and the Canal Belt, directly opposite Museumplein with its renowned museums and the famous Concertgebouw. Cinemas and theaters such as Pathé, Tuschinski, DeLaMar, and Carré are nearby. Paradiso and many other dining and entertainment venues are within walking distance. Daily groceries can be obtained at the Albert Heijn on Weteringschans, Vijzelstraat, or Museumplein. Additionally, various shops, cafés, and boutiques are located on the nearby P.C. Hoofstraat and Ferdinand Bolstraat, as well as the Albert Cuyp Market and Utrechtsestraat. The Jordaan, the Nine Streets, and Vondelpark are just a few minutes by bike. There is excellent access to the A10 Ring Road, and public transportation connections are superb; several trams, buses, and metro station Vijzelgracht are within walking distance. Since 2021, Weteringschans has become a bicycle street where cars are guests, making the area much quieter.
