Una prima impressione

On the luminous Cycladic island of Kea – or Tzia, as whispered by those who know her intimately – rises Venus, a masterpiece of Cycladic minimalism reimagined for the modern connoisseur. With clean geometry and timeless elegance, it opens onto a panoramic embrace of the Aegean, where light and sea merge into a living canvas of serenity.

Suspended above the azure, the villa becomes part of the horizon itself – an architectural poem inscribed within Kea’s natural amphitheater. In the tranquil enclave of Kastriani, Venus stands as a sculptural presence, where architecture, art, and nature exist in perfect dialogue.

Spanning 238 sqm on a 3,412 sqm plot, it five serene suites with en-suite bathrooms and a refined guest WC. Outdoor terraces, a pool, and landscaped gardens invite moments of reflection from sunrise to sunset, while the island’s golden beaches lie just minutes away.

Beyond its striking form, Venus embodies a vision of purity, independence, and understated luxury. The project also includes the option to acquire the full 6,000 sqm estate, with two villas (one 240 sqm and an another 180 swm)– an opportunity blending creative freedom with long-term value.

For those who seek harmony between design and nature, Villa Venus is a timeless invitation – a sanctuary where light becomes living art.
