Uma primeira impressão

Truly wonderful 99 m² apartment on one single living level in a bold industrial complex (built in 2006).

This fantastic apartment stands out thanks to its exceptional layout and the many possibilities it offers. With a façade width of nearly 17 metres(!) facing southeast and large folding windows spanning the full width, the space is beautifully bright, indoor and outdoor living blend seamlessly, and you enjoy an open outlook and charming views of the façades across the street.

The complex, designed by architect Marlies Rohmer, combines a sleek and contemporary design with a robust industrial appearance.
